

European Urban Initiative

City-to-City Exchanges

The beneficiary cities

State of play at 31 May 2024

- Belgium : Schaerbeek Healthy, sustainable, and enjoyable school meals
- Croatia : Varaždin Digital transition in the role of sustainable tourism - Duet
- Czech Republic : Brno Digital transition for functional urban areas
- Finland : Jyväskylä Improved social inclusion via culture
  - Oulu Using co-design with migrants and stakeholders to create greater societal consensus for integration
  - Tampere Climate Change Adaptation
  - Vantaa Learning from innovation ecosystems and physical innovation hubs
- France : La Rochelle Improving Childcare services and early childhood policies for sustainable and inclusive cities
  - Lille European Metropolis Capacity building on urban regeneration and park creation
- Greece : Piraeus Urban authorities towards digital transition for a sustainable, inclusive, digital, open and smart city
- Hungary : Szombathely Smarter, data-driven and more liveable cities
- Ireland : Fingal Provision of affordable housing by local authorities or subsidiaries using Cost Rental Model
- Italy : Alessandria Green mobility for sustainable tourism and community participation
  - Ancona Two ports, two stories, two cities
  - Avellino Actions for improving sustainable tourism in a participatory way in the city
  - Bari Strategies for managing overtourism in Bari and Granada
  - Borgomanero Unlocking the potential of a territory of 32 municipalities
  - Corigliano-Rossano Ports and seaside for urban transformation
  - Genoa EU cities connect: fostering culture, sustainable tourism and urban development
  - Pordenone Attracting new talents and becoming a welcoming city for youngsters for study and work
- Latvia : Liepāja Striving for digitalization and active citizen engagement
- Netherlands : Den Helder Building blocks for the area-oriented approach to quality of life and safety in vulnerable areas
- Poland : Rybnik Exchange of experience in the field of transformation of post-mining areas
- Portugal : Beja Strengthening cross-sectoral integration for urban regeneration
  - Coimbra Boosting biowaste management towards circular economy
- Romania : Piatra Neamt Urban Mobility implementation and infrastructure development
- Slovenia : Trbovlje Exchanging experience in culture & sustainable tourism between cities with a similar mining history
- Spain : Sueca How redevelop industrial areas into new creative and vibrant urban spaces
  - Villanueva de la Cañada Maximising EU opportunities for Sustainable Urban Development

Co-funded by the European Union

Source : Hauts-de-France Regional Council / Europe Department
cartography : Agence Hauts-de-France 2040 July 8, 2024 n° 6259-02